

Big Ideas—Character Development

- Students need to discover their strengths & natural talents.
- Students need to become avid learners, continual goal-setters, persistent high-level achievers, & outstanding citizens.
- Students need to develop good work habits to maximize their learning.
- Students can avoid problems as much as possible to be happier persons.
- Rules help individuals avoid problems.