

Big Ideas—Written Composition

- The Writing Process is an essential tool for writing essays.
- Understanding what complete thoughts are is essential to writing.
- Paragraph development is essential for effective essays.
- Writing essays is an essential way of communication and expression.
- Developing a research report is the best way to communicate findings and knowledge on a topic.
- Narrowing down a topic is essential for an effective research/study on a topic.
- Paraphrasing is essential for note taking on research projects.